PRAYER

If Jesus felt the need to pray to the Father, surely we need God's help in our own lives. God knows our needs even before we ask, but still He wants us to ask (Matt. 6:8); and Jesus tells us "that men always ought to pray" (Luke 18:1). James wrote that the fervent prayer of a righteous man does much good (James 5:16).

A prayer does not need to be long nor eloquent to be pleasing to God. It is to simply come from our heart as we humbly talk to our God and Creator. It was the simple and sincere prayer of the publican that was accepted by God, not the self-praising prayer of the Pharisee (Luke 18:10-14).

Prayer is to be directed to God the Father, as Jesus illustrated in teaching His apostles to pray (Matt. 6:9), and in the name of Jesus (John 14:13). Sometimes we get "stage fright" when asked to pray in public. But it helps to know that God is our "audience" and not those around us.

"Father, help us all to pray often with sincere hearts for we need Your help every moment of the day. In Jesus name, amen."

Remember In Prayer

Mark Berry remains in Morgantown for treatments. Mark & Candy want you to know how much they appreciate your prayers, visits, cards, text messages and phone calls. It all means so much to them and they send their love.

Dave Butterfield is now at Belpre Landing undergoing rehabilitation. He is in room 106 and would love to have visitors.

Wirt Cook has an appointment on July 22nd in Columbus with a liver specialist.

Diane Fouss begins another round of chemotherapy on July 26th. The treatments will be every week for twelve weeks. Diane thanks you for the cards and prayers while she has been undergoing treatments. It has all meant so much to her.

Ken James was in the hospital in Columbus last week. His medications were adjusted and he was able to come home on Monday.

Jim Jones had surgery last week in Wheeling. He is now home and doing well.

Joe Milligan completed radiation on Friday and will resume chemotherapy on July 30th.

Staci Milligan, daughter of Joe and Terri Milligan, underwent nasal reconstructive surgery on Wednesday in Nashville, as a result of the damage caused by granulomatosis with polyangiitis. She is home recuperating and doing well.

Gary Sawyers, brother-in-law of Mark & Carolyn Shockey, remains in Morgantown following open heart surgery. He is hoping to go home soon.

Dearll Vincent, father of Pam Kupfner, was discharged from the rehabilitation center and is now home.
