WHO SHOULD I BE?

With 2021 picking up where 2020 left off: more riots, more illness, more election controversy, and more confusion and turmoil, struggle seems to be the word of the day. Tribulation, Latin for pressure, is when the evil forces of the world put pressure on the good people of the world to turn to their evil ways. Seems like a good definition of what we are seeing today to me.

So what should I be? What should I be doing, seeing, thinking? How should I be acting in this mixed up, messed up world? Really, no different that you did before if you were living by faith in the Lord. Right is right no matter how loud the wrong shouts. Righteousness is not changed by the whims of an ungodly culture. Sin does not cease to be an abomination simply because some choose to accept it.

We must continue to put our trust in the Lord. We must hang on to the hope that is above the world, comes from heaven, and promises heaven to us. We must continue to live lives of faith in the Lord and let that faith build strength in times of tribulation and struggles. Our Lord promises that He will strengthen us through tough times if we remain faithful to Him.

What should I be? A Christian, regardless of the political climate, I must be a Christian.

"My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience. But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing." (James 1:2-4)
