YOUR BEHAVIOR

by Mark Aites

“The way we behave toward people indicates what we really believe about God.” – Warren Wiersbe

“Human behavior flows from three main sources: desire, emotion, and knowledge.” – Plato

“I will behave wisely in a perfect way. Oh, when will You come to me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart” (Psa. 101:2). Here we see the noble desire of the Psalmist. This is such a great challenge.

How often have we heard the old cliché, “Do as I say, and not as I do?” Or “Actions speak louder than words?” It is so easy to “talk the talk, but not walk the walk.”

James is the book of practical wisdom, and sometimes very hard hitting when it comes to our daily lives. He writes, “But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror, for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was” (James 1:22-24). If our Christianity has its basis totally in words and not in deeds, then we have only fooled ourselves.

Among the 613 laws and regulations of the Old Covenant, Israel was warned against cheating their fellow Israelites. “For all who do such things, all who behave unrighteously, are an abomination to the LORD your God” (Deut. 25:16). This is a simple reminder that behavior can be classed in two categories: righteous and unrighteous.

Our desire should be to have a behavior that exemplifies Christianity. People should be able to know of our love for God by the way we act. Isn't it interesting that Jesus reveals to us that we will be an influence upon others by the way we act? “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another. By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another” (John 13:34-35).

What does your behavior say about you?

Remember In Prayer

Brenda Lell had a spinal cord stimulator placed in her back on Friday. She was able to return home the same day.

Garrett Hofmann is in Israel working on anti-terrorism law on behalf of victims of the October attacks. He will return home on August 5th.

Jim Ullom had a biopsy on a nodule in his right lung. The nodule was found in 2022 and has recently grown. He is waiting on results.

Jase Vaughan has been diagnosed with pneumonia. He is receiving breathing treatments and antibiotics.

Ike Boggs, a friend of Jim Ullom's and a member at Spencer Church of Christ, has begun radiation treatments for a mass found in his lung.

Melody Gordon, daughter of Ken & Parma Heaney, went to a specialist about her cancer diagnosis. It was determined she does not have a rare form of cancer. The tumor was found early and is benign. She will have it looked at again in three months.

Jim & Sallie Hinzman, parents of Doug Hinzman, are struggling with significant health issues that is affecting the whole family.

Bob Hofmann, an elder at Hopewell Church of Christ, has begun treatments for cancer. He had a bad reaction to his first treatment and was unable to take his second treatment.

Doreen Kupfner requests prayers for her brother and sister-in-law, Paul and Pat Hoover. They are both dealing with cancer.

Dave Snider, a friend of Harvey West, has two blocked arteries. He was able to have a stent placed for one blockage but not the other. He will be taking blood thinners to help with the blockage.
